1. _____

Mark 15:2 “Are you the king of the Jews?” asked Pilate. “Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied.

2. _____

Mark 15:4-5 So again Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of.” 5 But Jesus still made no reply, and Pilate was amazed.

3. _____

- A. You are free to be the most political person or the least political person around.
- B. You can be used in revolutionary ways to influence change in our world; politically, socially, and spiritually!
- C. You can practice love toward all the saints even when you disagree and are not like them.

Ephesians 1:15-16 For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, 16 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers,

Discussion Questions:

Jeremiah 2:13 “My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.”

1. In what ways have you “dug your own cisterns that cannot hold water.”?
2. In what ways can you practice love toward another Believer who disagrees with you politically?
3. Regarding hope for the future, which identity are you most likely to respond from: The Kingdom of God or The Kingdom of the World? Why?
4. Christians have always been used by God to influence real change politically, socially, culturally, and spiritually. What small thing can you do right now that might affect change for good in Jesus’ name?
