

The Remarkably Unremarkable

Pastor Bryan D. Edwards
(bryan@trc.life)

TITUS 1:5-9

This is why I left you in Crete, so that you might put what remained into order, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you— 6 if anyone is above reproach, the husband of one wife, and his children are believers and not open to the charge of debauchery or insubordination. 7 For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, 8 but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. 9 He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it.

I. God has called the Elders to _____ the _____.

II. God has called the Elders to _____.

III. God has called _____ believer to _____.

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you think it is important for the Elders of the Church to be characterized by godliness rather than worldly success?
2. Why is a plurality of Elders beneficial to the local Church?
3. How do you personally understand the biblical teachings on gender roles in Church leadership? How can you approach these discussions with grace and understanding?
4. Who are the mentors in your life, and how have they encouraged you in your walk with Jesus? How can you grow as a mentor to others, regardless of your position?
5. In what areas do you struggle with self-control and discipline? Are there areas in your life where you are not living with full integrity or honesty?
6. How are you actively nurturing the faith of your family?
7. How do you practice hospitality? What are the things that prevent you from being more hospitable?
8. What does your devotion to the Bible look like? Where could you grow in your understanding of God's Word?
9. At The Rock Church we believe 'Every member is a minister.' Where do you feel God is calling you to jump in?

www.trc.lfe/womenrock1
www.trc.lfe/womenrock2

Next Week: Titus - Part Three